

March 18, 2013

Supervisor Watne called the regular meeting of the Wright County Board of Supervisors to order at 9:00 a.m. Members present were Watne, Helgevold, and Rasmussen.

Minutes of the previous regular meeting of March 11, 2013 were read and approved.

Approved claims for payment.

Held short discussion about the soft gravel roads. The County Engineer informed the board that calls are being made to area feedmills to request if they can haul during early morning while gravel roads are still frozen. The board members have been getting calls from citizens about how soft the roads are. It is requested that people be patient until the frost is out and the road crew can fix the roads back up.

Motion by Watne and seconded by Helgevold to appoint Bill Drury and Jana Gangstad to the Wright County Civil Service Commission as the Board of Supervisors appointment. Motion carries. Gary Berkland will be the appointment for the County Attorney for a 6 year term to 12/31/2018. Jana Gangstad term will expire 12/31/2016 and Drury will fill the unexpired term of 12/31/2014.

Bill Anderson, promoting Fuel Direct product, explained how Xp3 can save the county money. He claims that Xp3 has proven performance and will increase mileage with every tank. This product is a fuel additive and can go into gas or diesel engines. Mr. Anderson was directed to talk to the County Engineer as it would be his decision to use the product.

Motion by Rasmussen and seconded by Helgevold to adjourn the meeting. Motion carries.

Stan Watne, Chairman
